

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election seems to me a violation of their obligation to serve the public interest and undermines our democracy. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. The consolidation of so many media markets in the hands of a few does a disservice to those who value a free and open debate on issues important to all Americans.